April, 2009

FRESHMAN SUMMER READING REQUIREMENT

Dear Parents/Guardians and Incoming Freshmen,

Summer reading is required by the English and Social Studies Departments. It is an essential part of the curriculum and of each student's education. Completion of the summer reading is evaluated when the student returns to school in August, and it constitutes a significant part of the student's first quarter grades in English and Social Studies.

Required reading for English I

- Children of the River by Linda Crew (A Laurel Leaf Book by Bantam Doubleday Publishing Group, Inc., 1989)
- The Adventures of Ulysses by Bernard Evslin (Scholastic, Inc., 1969, 1992)
- The True Confessions of Charlotte Doyle by Avi (Avon Books, 1990)

Required reading for Ancient History

- The Midwife's Apprentice by Karen Cushman (Harper Trophy [HarperCollins], 1995)

Thank you for ensuring that this requirement is met. We look forward to seeing your daughters in the fall!

Sincerely,

Mary Cerutti
Assistant Principal for Academics
